

Southend Airport receives 'wonderful' praise from visiting TV presenter

A TV presenter has deemed his recent experience at Southend Airport as ‘wonderful.’

12:09 Tuesday 7 July 2015 / News

A TV presenter has deemed his recent experience at Southend Airport as ‘wonderful.’

Former children’s BBC presenter Andi Peters has tweeted his praise to Southend Airport and also commented on the staff’s positivity.

Mr Peters tweeted: “What a wonderful airport experience.

“You could teach LHR (London Heathrow) and LGW (London Gatwick) a thing or two. Smiling staff at every point.”

Southend airport thanked the presenter for his comments and promised to pass on the praise to their staff.